

LGBTQ Workplace Protections SCOTUS Case Explained by Experts

JUNE 15, 2020

Today, the Supreme Court released a landmark decision that protects LGBTQ individuals from workplace discrimination under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act.

Below, find a list of scholars who are available to be contacted for comments and analysis by journalists writing about the Supreme Court decision and its implications.

M.V. LEE BADGETT

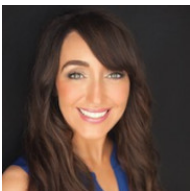

University of Massachusetts-Amherst

Expert on employment discrimination against LGBT people, the cost of homophobia and transphobia in global economies, and poverty in the LGBT community.

NICOLE MARIE ELIAS

CUNY John Jay College of Criminal Justice

Expert on diversity and representation in the public sector, with a particular focus on sex/gender orientation and identity.

GILBERT GONZALES

Vanderbilt University

Expert on the health and wellbeing of LGBTQ families and individuals, and the effects of comprehensive legal protections for LGBTQ Americans on health equity.

BARBARA J. RISMAN

University of Illinois at Chicago

Expert on work and family policies, changing family roles, the diversity of family structure and the Millennial generation. Her current research explores the development of gender and sexual identities among white and black middle-school children.